the market. 3.0 verse is positioned to partner with industry stakeholders to help them taking informed decision based on knowledge, research, and information. eth15 is another step towards this goal. The resilience of this ether index is also seen in a recent Ethereum merger event during the second week of September 2022; while this index was down by nearly 17% compared with 30% fall in Ethereum coin. Another interesting feature of the index is being very well diversified as no single coin is having a dominating weight,” said Mr. Joseph Massey, MD & CEO, 3.0 Verse.
